STANDARD OIL CO. ANSWERS ROOSEVELT

Circular on Rebating Charges Is Sent to All Its Share-methods was sent to sharesolders in the corporation to-day in the shape of a circular replying to the coarges of rebating and unfairness made by President Roosevelt in his recent message to Congress accompanying the Garfield report.

This is the first time that the Standard Okl has ever made public any communication from the officers to the shareholders. The unusual action is in line with the determination of the company to adopt a policy of publicity instead of the long-standing policy of secretary and suppression.

The circular is an elaboration of the statement made the day after the Roosevelt message was made public at good a related of receiving favors from railroads in the way of rebates. The statement is boildy made that the Standard Oil Company has not received a relate on its interstate shipments in fifteen years.
